Tax news brought by the Steamer Macgregor, detailing the arrival, reception and entertainment of King Kalakaya at San Francisco, is very gratifying to the national pride of all Hawaiians, and the story will be read by every person in the group. All honor to the city, state and federal officers, as well as to the citineas generally of the Quant City or THE Pacieto for the hearty and right royal welcome given to His Majesty and suite. We feel authorized, in the name of the Hawaiian People, to thank them for their courtoous and magnificent reception of our King: and should we ever be favored with the presonce of a Provident or ex-President of the great Republic, we promise not to outrival them but to do our best, in giving him a like popular welcome. ON THURSDAY The King, accompanied by his suite, visited the San Francisco Board of Brokers, on California street. On entering the Board room, His Majesty was rereived by the Chairman and escorted to a seat from which he could view the proceedings. The stock market being in a most excited state, and brokers still more so, the royal visitor had a good opportunity to witness the peculiar way in which the buils and bears worry each other and the public. The visitors remained about half an hour, and during a temporary ball took their departure.

In the afternoon the King and Consul Severance svailed themselves of an invitation to pass a lew hours amid the pastoral beauties of Woodward's Gardens. His Majesty was unattended by any of nal suite, and he was quietly received by R. B. Woodward and lady upon arrival at the Gar dens.

His Majesty and suite were driven out to the new United States Mint, accompanied by Consul Soverance, Seperintendent La Grange and several gentle en specially invited to be of the visiting party. By half-past seven the vast edifice began to The small parlor was soon througed with them, have a crowded appearance; and before half past eight, the hour set for the opening ceremonies. every seat was occupied, and desirable standing room was soon difficult to obtain. The Pavillon has not held such a throng since the closing evenlog of the Mechanics Fair. The acene was very brilful toilets, their countenspees beaming with solms tion, and their bright eyes firshing with pleasant excitement, and their escorts, many in tail evening mense room, and the deep galleries at either end, presenting an array of beauty and fashion but seldom witnessed. The ball was profusely draped with flags, and the four handsomely cauvassed. Over the draped all about the box. On the right of the box were seats reserved for officers of the Army and Navy in uniform; the Directors' seats, at the north end of the hall, were reserved for State and city offi-

At nice o'clock the long roll of the dram corps ment at the entrance. The soldiery came to un or der arms in the auta-hall, and the Colonel and staff held a consultation, the Presidio Band the While playing a march on the floor of the Pavillon. The thousands who crowded the place from "furret to foundation stone" stretched their necks to get a glimpse of the column as it entered. Applause anavanced the entrance of the Regiment, with Colonel McComb and staff at the bend. The Begiment had murched and countermurched by column, when the bugles' blast from without heralded the coming of the Hawaiian King and cortege and the Governor of the State, Newton Booth, and staff. The hand played "Hall to the Chief" as or Booth, dressed in evening soit, supported right and left by a member of his staff; the others with the King's suits, American Minister for the Hawail-Islands, Hon. Mr. Petres, Japanese Consul, Hon. C. becoming dignity, and chatted pleasantly with all Welcutt Brooks, members of the Japanese Embassy and like dignitaries closing up the column of distiognished and honored guests. No sooner had the Island King put in an appearance than a hearty applants rang out, load and continued, all along the crowded tiers, and continued white the dignituries nevanced up the Pavillon, and the stentorian voice of the Colonel of the Seenad echoed down the colman "Present Arms !" when every musket is held to marked honor of the State's Executive and our Hoyel neighbor and visitor; they during their welk, with hate in hand, howing and smiling in every comber, in the role of Fanct's Margarite. She is a Major Otia. The hour set was 0 p. m. The King's direction in acknowledgment of the compliances. The Governor and King were escorted to the stuad

Colonel Harvey Lake for drill, who took the regiment. They were put through the accepted drill in all its varied and intricate manonvers, and with such rapidity of autien, such thoroughness of movement, as to elicit the warm commendations from all assembled. The distinguished guests were cape cially delighted, and joined in the applause. drill over, the regiment was marched out by the Northern entrance, and departed with loud cheers.

The King's Departure. COLPAX, December 5th, -King Kalakaus and suffe, secompanied by Colonel Wherry, Lieutenant Wilams, of the steamer Benicla, Columel Hubbard, Consul Severance, Minister Petrce and Lieutenant-Commander Whiting, embarked on the Oakland steamer, in an unostrolations manner, this me there being no crowd or demanstration of any kind. The party immediately entered the Captain's cabin. At Oakland wharf about 200 people assumbled. The King immediately went on board the train. Two private coaches, commissary and drawing room were altached to the regular train, both elegantly

furnished and decorated with the Royal and American flags. An elegant breakfast was served up and partaken by the King and suite. At Melrose Station, Mrs. Mills, accompanied by Misses Spencer and Rowell, teachers, and ten Ilawailan pupils, came on board and presented the J C Pringer King with an elegant bouquet of natural flowers. Each member of the suite received a button-hole bouquet. The King received them in a pleasant manner. The whole was a pretty scene. After partaking of breakfast the King and Governor Dominis retired to bed and alept until after the train resched on our Journey. Several prominent Mormons were at the depot, but the King received no one,

At Evanstown a large crowd had assembled. As the train slowly started the King appeared on the rear platform and was received with cheers and waving of handkerchiefs.

Mr. Severance, who came to Sacramento, returned, much to the regret of the King and party.
Gold Rux, December Sih.—Kalakana arose just before the train left Sacramento, and received about tweive Hawaiiaos. He told them be would come back and remain a few days in Sacramento, when he hoped to see them.

In conversation to-day he speaks in glowing turns of the beautiful accesery while crossing the Sieres, and regretted night approaching as soon to shut off the view. He is still intigued from the effects of the reception in San Francisco.
